Food

There will be coffee provided and there are plenty of restaurants nearby for lunch.

You are also free to bring your own food and snacks

Tobacco (yes, it is a food group, ask any Army Ranger) –Designated areas only. No smoking at the range.

Location

The one day course includes a classroom Power Point presentations as well as instructor demonstrations and as much hands on instruction, dry-firing, and live firing we could put in a single day. This is a great course to the handgun novice or to those who need a good refresher in order to “dust off the cobwebs.” SSG believes in an open, friendly, training environment so bring plenty of questions and a great attitude.
