

D. Thane Jensen

D. Thane Jensen, PPS is the co-founder of Jensen, Jensen & Associates, an executive protection and personal security training company. A 1992 graduate of the Executive Protection Institute of Berryville, Virginia he has worked on anti-stalking and domestic executive protection assignments. Jensen is member of Nine Lives Associates a select group of Law Enforcement, Military and Security Professionals who have shared a unique training experience through their attendance, participation and completion of the program entitled "Providing Executive Protection." He specializes in small detail executive protection operations and has conducted primer seminars for those interested in the profession. Jensen networks with personal security brokers on the east & west coasts who refer clients requiring protective services while in the mid-west.

As an edged weapons and combatives instructor Jensen has conducted a pre-deployment edged weapons and anti-terrorism briefing for the 710th Medical Squadron, Offutt Air Force Base and has taught close combat seminars for ROTC cadets at Creighton University. Jensen, Jensen & Associates has hosted numerous edged weapons and unarmed combatives training camps. Jensen is a past edged weapons instructor for the Nebraska Use of Force Trainers Association (NUFTA). Additionally, Jensen has continued to train annually with Michael Janich since 2002 and is an Affiliate Instructor in Janich's Martial Blade Concepts / Counter Blade Concepts (MBC/CBC) systems including the empty hand tactics of Damithurt Silat, Sobadiwan Escrima. His martial arts experience includes training in Tae Kwon Do, Hapkido and Judo and he has a strong basis in Togakure Ryu Ninjutsu and its sub-arts. He has trained extensively in WWII combatives and unarmed combative tactics under the late R. Ethan Jensen, cofounder of Jensen, Jensen & Associates. Jensen has also attended Rapid Deployment / Active Shooter training. Together with Christopher Doner, Security Solutions Group partner, he has instructed groups and private individuals in basic firearms handling and safety procedures.

Jensen is a contributing author for In Quartata, a quarterly newsletter published by Jensen, Jensen & Associates.